Dearest Dog Lover,

I am writing this autobiography / letter in hopes of communicating to that special person, who I am, and my dreams for the future. My name is Gypsy, and I am a free spirit. I have lived a lot of life in my one year. I've been a drifter this past year, traveling the world (well, not really... Mainly just South Carolina, York County to be more specific). I have never met a stranger and love to live life to the fullest. My mother was a gypsy too, and papa was a rollin', stone. You know how the song goes. I've traveled searching for love in all the wrong places. I am a 35 pound mini-lab. In spite of my colorful past, I am not just a PBD! (that's dog street slang, for Plain Black Dog) I am creative, hilariously funny, smart, laid back when I feel like it, and full of love. I am now ready to give up my bohemian lifestyle, and settle down with my forever family. Ok... I'll probably never be your full pedigree, yippy, soccer mom, kinda gal, but I'm better --- I'm one of a kind! I can see into my future...is that you I see?? I don't believe in happenstance, it's fate that you are reading this love letter. Let fate work her magic, and adopt me. Call Renee - 803-222-1005 or 704-458-3457 or email dinidog@bellsouth.net.

Peace out!

Signed with Love, Gypsy Rose

I see in your future...
you... with a dog...
a BLACK dog...
a dog named...
Gypsy! That's it!
Gypsy!!
